ROOSEVELT IN SOUTH

Makes Notable Speech to Great Throng of People

CLASS LEGISLATION

President Declares That Fall of Republics Has Been Due to It

Washington, Oct. 18.—President Roosevelt began his tour of the south this morning at 8:30 o'clock. His departure from Washington was without incident.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 18.—Today will be a memorable day in the history of this city. Never before has it been so thoroughly aroused and enthused over any event as it has been over the visit of President Roosevelt, who arrived here for a few hours' stay shortly after noon. Never before has this city been so profusely decorated and never have the citizens shown greater enthusiasm than they did today over the arrival of the chief magistrate.

The day was generally observed as a holiday. All public and private schools were closed, as were all public offices, banks and nearly all business houses. The city presented a beautiful sight. Nearly every house in town was decorated with flags and the principal streets, like Main, Broad and Fifth, as well as many of the cross streets, were perfect bowers of flags. Flags were in evidence everywhere. They waved from every flagpole in town, hung from windows, roofs and wires stretched across the streets. Even the street cars were decorated with flags and the fronts of hundreds of buildings in the business part of the city were richly and tastefully draped with large flags and bunting.

The following is the President's speech, delivered this afternoon to a large crowd:

I trust I need hardly say how great is my pleasure at speaking in this historic capital of your state; the state than which no other has contributed a larger proportion to the leadership of the nation; for on the honor roll of those American worthies whose greatness is not only for the age, but for all time, not only for one nation, but for all the world, on this honor roll Virginia's name stands above all others. And in greeting all of you, I know that no one will grudge my saying a special word of acknowledgment to the veterans of the civil war. A man would indeed be but a poor American who could without a thrill witness the way in which, in city after city in the north as well as in the south, on every public occasion, the men who wore the blue and the men who wore the gray now march and stand shoulder to shoulder, giving tangible proof that we are all now in fact as well as in name a reunited people, a people infinitely richer because of the priceless memories left to all Americans by you men who fought in the great war. Last Memorial Day I spoke in Brooklyn, at the unveiling of a statue of a northern general, under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic, and that great audience cheered every allusion to the valor and self-devotion of the men who followed Lee as heartily as they cheered every allusion to the valor and self-devotion of the men who followed Grant. The wounds left by the great civil war have long healed, but its memories remain. Think of it, oh my countrymen, think of the good fortune that is ours! That whereas every other war of modern times has left feelings of rancor and bitterness to keep assailing the combatants, our great war has left to the sons and daughters of the men who fought, on whichever side they fought, the same right to feel the keenest pride in the great deeds alike of the men who fought on one side and of the men who fought on the other. The proud self-sacrifice, the resolute and daring courage, the high and steadfast devotion to the right as each man saw it, whether northern or southern, these qualities render all Americans forever the debtors of those who in the dark days from '61 to '65 proved their truth by their endeavor. Here around Richmond, here in your own state, there lies battlefield after battlefield, rendered forever memorable by the men who counted death as but a little thing when weighed in the balance against doing their duty as it was given them to see it. These men have left us of the younger generation not merely the memory of what they did in war, but of what they did in peace. Foreign observers predicted that when such a great war closed it would be impossible for the hundreds

PERJURY IS CHARGED

Enters Mutual Life Investigation—McCurdy Kicks

New York, Oct. 18.—The district attorney's office was called upon today by the legislative investigation committee because of the testimony of one witness, and the question of an arrest for perjury is now being considered by Assistant District Attorney Rand.

The witness in question is Geo. J. Plunkitt, an 18-year-old telephone operator in the employ of the stationery firm of L. W. Lawrence & Co., from whom the Mutual Life Insurance Company purchased a great deal of supplies.

It was brought out in yesterday's testimony that among the vouchers for money charged legal expenses was one for $1,901, signed by George J. Plunkitt. His identity was not disclosed until today, when Plunkitt was called to the stand. He testified as to his employment, and when shown the voucher denied that he had ever signed it. He further denied that he had ever received that amount of money from the Mutual Life, or that he had rendered the company any service whatever. Mr. Hughes asked Plunkitt to write his name in ink on a piece of paper, which he did. This and the voucher were then offered in evidence, and the similarity of the signatures were called to attention of the committee.

Wm. A. Carpenter, a clerk in the supply department of the Mutual Life, told of how a house has been maintained in Albany for several years at the expense of the Mutual Life. Mr. Field, superintendent of his department, occupied it only during legislative sessions, and on several occasions two members of the insurance committee of the legislature lived in the house with Mr. Field.

New York, Oct. 18.—There was a sharp passage at arms at the insurance investigation today between Counsel Hughes and James H. Beck, acting for McCurdy, president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company. Beck protested that Hughes had frequently led up to points which gave newspapers the opportunity "to put ugly imputations against McCurdy," and that Hughes dropped the inquiry before McCurdy had a chance to explain. Hughes then said that if he had served at all it had been by showing courtsey when circumstances justified severe measures. "A witness who gets himself into a false position," he said, "has only himself to blame."

TEN-YEAR-OLD BOY SHOT.

Was Taking Shotgun From Wagon and Dropped It.

Phoenix, Oct. 18.—Dan Maddox, ten years of age, lies between life and death as the result of a gunshot wound in the right shoulder, received about 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon while removing a gun from a wagon near his father's ranch some ten miles west of Phoenix.

No one was with the boy at the time of the accident, and no complete explanation can be given by him as to how it occurred. It is supposed that he tried to lift the gun out of the wagon and dropped it, and the hammer striking a spoke of the wheel both barrels were discharged. Dr. H. A. Hughes, who is attending the injured boy, stated this afternoon that his recovery is a matter of speculation. The greater part of the flesh where the right arm enters the shoulder was shot away and the bone injured.

When Maddox was shot his clothing took fire, the flesh being badly burned in addition to the other injuries.

WILTSEE-TAYLOR WEDDING.

Paris, Oct. 18.—Ernest A. Wiltsee of New York, a wealthy young society man, who owns valuable gold and silver mines in California and Mexico, and Miss Emily Stuart Taylor, daughter of the late Stuart Taylor and a niece of Mrs. Pierre Lorillard, Sr., were married here today in the presence of a number of their American friends. After a short wedding trip in Europe the young married couple will make their home in New York.

THREE MILLION GRAFT

Storey Cotton Co. Man Indicted on Many Counts

Philadelphia, Oct. 18.—Stanley Francis, who has been on trial in the United States district court since October 9th, charged with using the mails to defraud in connection with the defunct Storey Cotton Company, was today found guilty on every count of the indictment. Francis, who was known under several aliases, was charged by the government with being the principal in the Storey Cotton Company, which when closed by the postal authorities, owed nearly three million dollars to customers throughout the country.

Let Contracts.—The J. E. Thompson Co. yesterday let contracts for three new cottages to be put up at once on the Johnson addition.

CONGRESSMEN IMPRESSED

Utterances During Busy Day in North Yesterday Teemed With Appreciation of Great Worth of Arizona—Declare Statehood Not Far Distant

Adams, Ariz., Oct. 18.—The Congressional party had a strenuous day today. The great petrified forests here were inspected this morning and later the party visited Flagstaff, Winslow and Holbrook.

At Flagstaff Congressman Tawney addressed the Normal School and assured the pupils that he did not believe in unwilling unions, and thought that when the party returned and voted this fall their course would be satisfactory, both in New Mexico and Arizona. He congratulated Arizona on her schools, and said both Arizona and New Mexico were great domains, and believed that a few years development would make them the equals of any state in the Union.

The Lowell observatory, saw mills and public schools were visited at Flagstaff and the citizens there expressed their preference for territorial government to joint statehood with New Mexico. At Winslow, Congressman Adams complimented the people on their schools and the intelligence of the territory, saying that the day was coming when they would get single statehood. When the schools dismissed the children came to the train to shake hands with the visitors. Fruits from the valley were brought aboard in baskets.

At Holbrook, Congressman Miner said Arizona and New Mexico were each rich enough to become single states, and in a few years Congress would ask them to come, and they would not have to beg. The government of the United States, he said, was fast being wrested from the narrow-minded politicians of the east, and becoming centralized in the Mississippi valley, which assured fair treatment to the two territories. He urged Arizona to cease statehood agitation, and thus defeat jointure, continue her development, and she would soon become a state. The unanimous sentiment of Arizona everywhere the party has visited has been against joint statehood with New Mexico, preferring to remain a territory rather than suffer jointure, being the sentiment expressed.

YAQUI LEADERS SHOT

Taken From Among 70 Prisoners for Deportation

Nogales, Oct. 18.—Last week a bunch of seventy Yaqui Indians were rounded up by Mexican soldiers near Carbo, Sonora. In the party were forty men and thirty women. They were taken to Carbo, and from there to Guaymas, for transportation to Yucatan. Below Carbo two of the leaders were taken from the train and shot.

For several days past there has been no report of murders committed, though the Indians had been disagreeably active for a few weeks preceding the week just ended. On account of rumors that some of the smaller bands had come together and formed a few bands larger than the parties heretofore doing damage, there was considerable apprehension reported from some of the smaller towns, but none of the settlements in which the scare was felt was molested. There was also an evidently groundless scare reported to the effect that there was danger of an attack on Hermosillo.

Bought Property.—Wm. Spier yesterday purchased a three-room cottage of Fred Ivey on Laundry Hill through Edwards & Thompson. Mr. Spier will occupy the house.

ARE HELD FOR CONSPIRACY

PORTION OF MEAT PACKERS' DEMURRER OVERRULED RELATING TO RESTRAINT OF TRADE.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Federal Judge J. Otis Humphrey today gave a decision on the demurrer of the meat packers charged with illegal conspiracy. He overruled the portion of the demurrer in which the packers attacked the odd numbered counts, charging conspiracy in restraint of trade. The demurrer to the even numbered counts charging a monopoly was sustained.

TAMALE MEN AT WAR.

"Jake" Tried to Clear Brewery of Opposition—Officer Called to Quell Disturbance.

A riot was working to head in approved manner on Brewery last evening when Officer Wilmoth came to Shattuck's in response to summons. The trouble was among tamale vendors. "Jake," the dean of the tamale association in the city, was the center of the disturbance. According to his view of things his territory was being encroached upon by other tamale men gathered in front of Shattuck's. They were present in such numbers that the street was almost blocked, and Jake was shut far in the rear of the narrow channel of traffic that was being permitted to ooze through. It was this that he objected to and the other tamale men insisted upon. The officer opened the congested way, but refused to order the other tamale men to leave, as the dean desired he should. "Jake" was referred to the city attorney for advice he wanted as to right to force observance of limits he claimed as his for stand purposes.

Mrs. M. E. Hays left yesterday for a visit with her daughter at El Paso.

NAVE TO SUCCEED DOAN

Phoenix Story Says Attorney is Slated for Judgeship

Phoenix, Oct. 18.—With all the political gossip that is floating about the Territory, many speculations as to changes in the federal roster are being made. The latest is that Frederick S. Nave, United States attorney, is to succeed Fletcher M. Doan, associate justice for Graham and Cochise counties. Nave is said to have been promised the place as soon as the term Justice Doan is now serving expires. It is positively known that Nave is not to succeed himself as United States attorney for Arizona. Attorney J. L. B. Alexander of this city being the one to whom will fall the honor shortly. In the southern part of the Territory it is generally believed Nave will displace Judge Doan, who has been in office for the past eight years, being located at Tombstone now.

M'GOVERN STILL GOOD ONE.

Put Murphy Out Last Night With Fast Fighting.

Philadelphia, Oct. 18.—Tommy Murphy, of New York, was badly beaten by Terry McGovern tonight at the National Athletic Club. It took McGovern only two minutes and two seconds to gain the victory. Murphy was helpless before the blows of the former champion. The defeated man was game to the end. McGovern showed his old time form, fighting hard and fast.

PACKER CUDAHY'S DAUGHTER MARRIED.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 18.—Miss Catherine Cudahy, daughter of Patrick Cudahy, the millionaire packer, and Thomas Fernediz of Dayton, O., were married at St. John's Cathedral here this morning. Several hundred invited guests were present at the ceremony, which was one of the most brilliant events of the season. Miss Cudahy's elder sister was maid of honor and Miss Irene Cudahy, a younger sister, and Miss Mary Fernediz acted as bridesmaids.

DIED THIS MORNING.

Thomas McNamara died at 1 o'clock this morning. He was 29 years of age. A wife and one child survive. The body will be sent to San Francisco for burial.

MINISTER CAUGHT THIEF.

Latter Surrendered Stolen Blanket and Begged Pardon.

In front of the Review office about midnight a lap robe was stolen from a buggy left there for a few minutes by Rev. H. M. Shields. On his way to the C. & A. Hospital, where summoned to the bedside of a critically ill man, Mr. Shields a little later passed a Mexican carrying the lap robe. The minister stopped his horse and demanded of the man if he had not stolen the robe. The Mexican recognized the minister, and falling on his knees delivered up the robe with devout pleadings for pardon from both man and God. The minister added a prayer in behalf of the man, whereupon each resumed his way, the minister thankful that he had his blanket back, and the Mexican undoubtedly thankful that he had escaped arrest.

To Open Hardware Store.—Sam Lewis has leased the room now occupied with a billiard parlor next the store of Anderson & Cull, and will shortly open a hardware establishment in the place.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 17.—In an encounter between the police and striking printers at the government bureau of printing and engraving this afternoon forty persons were injured, but none seriously. The printers had attempted to hold a meeting against orders.

Wichita, Oct. 18.—Ex-Congressman Jerry Simpson had several hours' sleep last night. The physicians have absolutely no hope, and believe that the next hemorrhage will cause death.

BATTLE WITH OFFICERS

San Diego Schooner's Crew Resists Mexicans

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 18.—Reports from Ensenada are to the effect that the capture of the schooner Juanita by Mexican customs officers was the occasion of quite a naval battle.

Approach of the customs boat was noted by the Juanita's men while she was still some rods away, and they, after shouting to the officers to keep away, fired a volley from rifles. The revenue men replied with two volleys, shooting directly into the schooner. No one was hit.

The situation of the captured men is regarded as serious, as there have been previous charges against one of them in Mexico.

CAUSE BANK TO FAIL

Politicians Got Into a Pittsburg Concern Too Heavily

CASHIER KILLS HIMSELF

Had Endorsed Paper of Men Prominent in State Affairs—Big Shortage

Pittsburg, Oct. 18.—After investigation of the books of the Enterprise National Bank on Beaver Ave., Allegheny, which disclosed that the bank was insolvent, T. Lee Clarke, cashier of the institution for years, went to his home, 545 Lincoln Ave., Bellevue, last night, spent a sleepless, nervous night, and shot himself through the head this morning. He lived until 2:50 o'clock this afternoon when death came. An hour before the announcement of his death was received at the bank, a telegram came from the comptroller of the currency at Washington closing its doors and appointing Bank Examiner John J. Cunningham as receiver. Following closely the exciting events in lower Allegheny came announcement from the president of the bank, Fred Gwynner, that Clarke had loaned thousands of dollars to Pennsylvania politicians, and that he himself had endorsed a note for $50,000 yesterday for Clarke, concluding with the statement that if the shortage was only $100,000, he would gladly pay it himself.

The bank has state deposits which will amount to about $300,000, of which $495,000 is in checking or active account and the rest in a sinking fund. Mr. Gwynner in his statement said: "Nearly $700,000 of the $800,000 of state deposits of our bank is out on the paper of state politicians. W. H. Andrews has borrowed nearly $400,000; Frank J. Torrance has borrowed considerable—I do not know how much, but the bank is solvent."

COURT NOT TO BE DELAYED.

Such is Judge Doane's Intimation. Probably Open on 25th—Trial Jurors Convene on 30th.

Chairman Bowen, of the Board of Supervisors, yesterday received a telegram from Judge Doan in reply to that sent regarding postponement of the date for opening the next term of the District Court. The telegram did not state positively that postponement would not be made, but the intimation was that the Judge would open court at the time he originally expected to do so, and would carry it on as best he could with the men at work in the court room finishing the work in hand. In this event court will in all probability open on the 25th of this month. The trial jury will convene on the 30th. As the first part of the session will be devoted to the hearing of civil cases, the judge will probably be able to conduct his work in chambers for the most part until the court room is ready. This is probably what he contemplates.
